

MVSS PROPOSED CONSTITUTION & BYLAW CHANGES

Current

Revised

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Membership of this Society shall be limited to physicians of good professional standing, who have a major interest and an active practice in vascular surgery and/or endovascular intervention, as demonstrated by case logs, contributions to vascular education and/or research, or participation in regional or local vascular societies. He or she should be certified by the American Board of Surgery or the American Board of Osteopathic Surgery in Vascular Surgery. In select cases, equivalent training may be substituted for formal certification.

There shall be six types of Society Affiliations: Active Members, Associate, Candidate, Medical Student, Senior Members and Honorary Members.

The Candidate group shall consist of individuals who are in a Surgery residency training program or are currently in or have completed a Vascular Surgery residency or fellowship training program. Individuals who have completed an approved Vascular Surgery residency or fellowship may remain in the Candidate group as long as they are board eligible, but not yet certified. Individuals in the Candidate Group shall have no voting privileges, are not eligible for election as officers and are not subject to assessment for dues.

Active members shall consist of original charter members and all members subsequently elected until they become eligible for senior membership. The number of active members shall not be limited.

Senior members shall consist of active members who have reached the age of 60 years. Senior members shall have all of the responsibilities and privileges of active members, excepting those regarding attendance at meetings.

Honorary members shall consist of individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the discipline of vascular surgery. They shall have no voting privileges, are not eligible for election as officers, and are not subject to assessment for dues.

The Associate Group shall consist of allied health care professionals who have a major interest in vascular surgery and/or endovascular interventions. This group may include vascular nurses, nurse practitioners, registered vascular technologists and physician assistants. Individuals in the Associate Group shall have no voting privileges and are not eligible for election as officers.

The Medical Student Candidate group shall consist of Medical Students who are currently students from the Medical schools belonging to the geographic location of the Midwestern Vascular Surgical Society who have an interest in the specialty of vascular surgery. Individuals in the Medical Student Candidate group shall have no voting privileges and are not eligible for election as officers.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

There shall be six types of Society Affiliations: Active Members, Associate Members, Candidate Members, Medical Student Members, Senior Members and Honorary Members.

Active Members of this Society shall be limited to physicians of good professional standing, who have a major interest and an active practice in vascular surgery and/or endovascular intervention, as demonstrated by contributions to vascular education and/or research, or participation in regional or local vascular societies. He /she /they should be certified by the American Board of Surgery or the American Board of Osteopathic Surgery in Vascular Surgery. In select cases, equivalent training may be substituted for formal certification. The number of Active Members shall not be limited.

Associate Members of this Society shall consist of allied health care professionals who have a major interest in vascular surgery and/or endovascular interventions. This group may include vascular nurses, nurse practitioners, registered vascular technologists and physician assistants. Individuals in the Associate Group shall have no voting privileges and are not eligible for election as officers.

Candidate Members of this Society shall consist of individuals who are in a General Surgery Residency , Integrated Vascular Surgery Residency or Vascular Fellowship. Individuals who have completed an approved Vascular Surgery residency or fellowship may remain in the Candidate group as long as they are board eligible, but not yet certified. Individuals in the Candidate Group shall have no voting privileges, are not eligible for election as officers and are not subject to assessment for dues.

Honorary Members of this Society shall consist of individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the discipline of vascular surgery. They shall have no voting privileges, are not eligible for election as officers, and are not subject to assessment for dues.

Medical Student Members of this Society shall consist of individuals who are currently enrolled in medical schools belonging to the geographic location of the Midwestern Vascular Surgical Society and who have an interest in the specialty of vascular surgery. Individuals in the Medical Student group shall have no voting privileges and are not eligible for election as officers.

Senior Members of this Society shall consist of Active Members who have reached the age of 65 years. Upon request by the member, membership category shall be changed from Active to Senior and no membership dues shall be required. Senior members are not eligible to serve on active committees but may sponsor abstracts. Senior members shall have no voting privileges.

ARTICLE I – ELECTION OF MEMBERS

Physicians fulfilling constitutional membership requirements who practice in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota or Wisconsin may be eligible for active membership.

Application forms for candidate membership shall be available to Vascular Surgery Program Directors and shall be provided by the Secretary and available on the Society website. Completed application forms signed by the proposed Candidate and the proposed Candidate's Vascular Surgery Fellowship or General Surgery Program Director shall be delivered to the Secretary. Completed applications shall be reviewed by the Membership Committee, which has the right to accept or reject any application for inclusion in the Society. Once approved by the Membership Committee, applicants will be members of the Candidate Group so that they may be invited to the Annual Meeting. A member of the Candidate Group achieving certification in Vascular Surgery will be asked to become an Active Member. The consideration for Active Membership shall be submitted to the Secretary. The member of the Candidate Group may then become an Active Member of the Society after approval of the Membership Committee and the Council.

Application forms for active membership or membership in the Associate Group shall be provided by the Secretary. Completed application forms signed by the applicant, one sponsor and one endorser shall be delivered to the Secretary. Sponsors and endorsers shall be active members of the Society. Completed applications shall be reviewed by the Membership Committee, which has the right to accept or reject any application for membership in the Society. An applicant may then become a member of the Society or the Associate Group after approval of the Membership Committee and the Council. Names of applicants recommended for membership by the Council shall be submitted to the membership at the annual assembly.

Medical Student Candidate membership may be granted to Medical Students who are currently students from the Medical schools belonging to the MVSS geographic location. The term of Medical Student Candidate Membership shall be limited to the duration of Medical School attendance. Upon Graduation from Medical School you, individual may be eligible to continue as a Candidate Member with enrollment in an accredited Vascular Surgery/General Surgery training program in the United States. Medical Student Candidate Membership shall be approved through administrative action, or by the recommendation of the Membership Committee after determining that an applicant has satisfied the applicable requirements. Medical Student Candidate Members are not permitted to vote at MVSS business meetings, hold elected office or serve on councils or committees. Medical Student Candidate Members are not subject to assessment for dues.

Candidates for honorary membership shall be proposed in writing to the Council through the Secretary. Candidates approved by the Council will be elected honorary members in accord with the same procedure regarding active membership.

Members in good standing who subsequently take up practice in geographic areas other than the aforementioned states shall continue to be regarded as members of the Society and will be required to pay dues.

In unique circumstances, non-physician scientists from the aforementioned geographic area may be eligible for active membership.

ARTICLE I – ELECTION OF MEMBERS

Physicians fulfilling constitutional membership requirements who practice in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota or Wisconsin may be eligible for Active Membership.

Applications for Active and Associate Membership can be completed electronically from the Society's website. Applicants should identify a Member of MVSS to serve as a sponsor. The sponsor should be familiar with the applicant's vascular surgery training, clinical work and/or presents standing in his/her/their medical community. Completed applications shall be reviewed by the Membership Committee, and approved by the Executive Council.

Applications for Candidate Membership can be completed electronically from the Society's website. Applicant must list the name of their current residency or fellowship program along with their program director and anticipated year of graduation. Completed applications shall be reviewed by the Membership Committee and approved by the Executive Council on a quarterly basis. A Candidate Member achieving board certification in Vascular Surgery will be eligible for Active Membership.

Applications for Medical Student membership can be completed electronically from the Society's website. The term of Medical Student Membership shall be limited to the duration of Medical School attendance. Upon Graduation from Medical School, individuals may be eligible to continue as a Candidate Member with enrollment in an accredited Vascular Surgery/General Surgery training program in the states that participate in the Midwestern Region Completed applications shall be reviewed by the Membership Committee, and approved by the Executive Council.

Candidates for Honorary Membership shall be proposed in writing to the Executive Council. Candidates approved by the Council will be elected honorary members in accord with the same procedure regarding active membership.

ARTICLE II – OFFICERS, COUNCILORS

The President and President-Elect of the Society shall be elected to terms of one year each. The Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected to a three-year term. The incoming and outgoing secretaries shall share duties for a period of six months.

The President shall preside at council meetings and the annual assembly. The President shall appoint members to all standing and ad hoc committees, and shall serve as an ex-officio member of such. Successors to vacated offices of the Society shall be appointed by the President until the position is filled at the next annual assembly. The President shall have the power to appoint a representative to any organization that the president and council believe may be beneficial to the society. The President shall prepare an address for the annual assembly of the Society.

The President shall appoint a member to function as the Society's representative to the American Association for Vascular Surgery, and a member to function as the Society's representative to Advisory Board for the Society for Vascular Surgery, for terms not to exceed three years. The President shall prepare an address for the annual assembly of the Society.

The President-Elect, in the absence or incapacity of the President, shall perform the duties of the President's office. In the absence of the President-Elect and the President, the Chair shall be assumed by a President Pro-Tem, elected by such members of the Council as are present.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the meetings of the Society and the Council, receive and care for all records belonging to the Society, and conduct correspondence of the Society. The Secretary shall function as the Chair of the Program Committee for the annual meeting. This office will issue to all members a written report of the preceding year's transactions to be reviewed with the Council and membership at the annual assembly.

The Treasurer shall receive all monies and funds belonging to the Society, pay all bills, render bills for dues and assessments and report to the Council and membership at the annual assembly meeting. The Treasurer will prepare an annual report for audit.

Councilors at large shall be elected for three-year terms, with election of one counselor occurring annually so as to provide overlapping terms. The duties will be assigned by the President. One Councilor will be appointed as the Society Recorder, with functions of tracking journal submissions and acceptances.

ARTICLE II – OFFICERS, COUNCILORS

The President and President-Elect of the Society shall be elected to terms of one year each. The Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected to a three-year term. The incoming and outgoing secretaries shall share duties for a period of six months.

The President shall preside at council meetings and the annual assembly. The President shall have the power to appoint a representative to any organization that the president and council believe may be beneficial to the society. The President shall prepare an address for the annual assembly of the Society.

The President-Elect, in the absence or incapacity of the President, shall perform the duties of the President's office. In the absence of the President-Elect and the President, the Chair shall be assumed by a President Pro-Tem, elected by such members of the Council as are present.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of the meetings of the Society and the Council, receive and care for all records belonging to the Society, and conduct correspondence of the Society. The Secretary shall function as the Chair of the Program Committee for the annual meeting.

The Treasurer shall oversee the following: all monies and funds belonging to the Society, payment of all bills, invoicing of dues and assessments and report to the Council and membership at the annual assembly meeting. The Treasurer will prepare an annual report for audit.

Councilors at large shall be elected for three-year terms, with election of one counselor occurring annually so as to provide overlapping terms. The duties will be assigned by the President. One Councilor will be appointed as the Society Recorder, with functions of tracking journal submissions and acceptances.

ARTICLE III – COMMITTEES

Standing committees of the Society shall consist of the membership committee, the nominating committee (composed of the President, President-Elect, and the immediate Past-President), an auditing committee (composed of the Councilors), and a program committee.

Ad Hoc committees may be designated by the President with advice of the Council and the President will also define the time of service.

All committees shall be chaired by a member appointed by the President with the advice of the Council.

ARTICLE III – COMMITTEES

Standing committees of the Society shall consist of the education committees, communications committee, membership committee, nominating committee (composed of the President, President-Elect, and the immediate Past-President), and a program committee.

Ad Hoc committees may be designated by the President with advice of the Council and the President will also define the time of service.

All committees shall be chaired by a member appointed by the Nominating Committee